E-Blast

 Mark your calendars!

WE ARE STANDING TOGETHER ON WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2026!

Our students deserve safe classrooms, proper funding, and the support they need to succeed. On September 16, education workers across Ontario are standing shoulder-to-shoulder to send a clear message: We will not sit back while our schools are underfunded and overcrowded.

Who is EWAQ-ATEO?

The Education Workers Alliance of Ontario (EWAQ-ATEO) is a provincial coalition of seven independent unions and associations, including the EAA, working together to give education support workers a stronger, unified voice at the provincial bargaining table.

When Ontario introduced a two-tiered bargaining system, separating central provincial negotiations from local school board issues, EWAQ-ATEO was formed to ensure our members are never left behind or forced to fight alone.

By uniting nearly 6,000 education support workers across Ontario, EWAQ-ATEO transforms our individual bargaining units into a powerful collective movement. Standing together allows us to pool our resources, demand fair treatment from the province, and safeguard the crucial roles that keep our schools running every day.

Our Member Associations:

EWAO-ATEO is made up of seven dedicated bargaining units:

- Educational Assistants Association (EAA)
- Halton District Educational Assistants Association (HDEAA)
- Dufferin-Peel Education Resource Workers' Association (DPERWA)
- Association of Professional Student Services Personnel (APSSP)
- Service Employees International Union (SEIU) Local 2
- Unite Here Local 272
- AEFO Local 103

Together, as part of EWAO-ATEO, we stand shoulder-to-shoulder to defend public education and protect the workers who support our students.
