

E-Blast

At the March 30th Board of Trustees meeting, EAA President, Lisa Weiler Haskins spoke to the new classroom evacuation report and the critical frontline work of EAs and CYWs. The message was clear: provincial underfunding in education is affecting student learning, staff well-being, family stability and the supports our classrooms need.

We were proud to see a strong show of solidarity of WRDSB DECEs, teachers, custodians, EAs, and CYWs who filled the gallery wearing red and standing in unity.

Together, we continue to put students first by raising awareness, connecting with others affected, and speaking openly about the realities in our classrooms. As we see increasing school board takeovers and the implications of Bill 33, now is the time to advocate and ensure our voices are heard.
