E-News Updates

As the year comes to a close, we would like to express our gratitude for all you do to support your students, schools, and communities; you make a difference every day.

Wishing you a well-deserved rest this holiday season filled with all of the things you love most.

Please be aware the EAA office is closed and will reopen on January 6, 2023.

~EAA Executive team

The EAA wishes to thank Lisa Cornish for her years of service and dedication in her role as the EAA Treasurer.

Updates on the treasurer's role moving forward will be given at the General Meeting on Jan 20, 2025.

Message from our outgoing treasurer, Lisa Cornish.

I have enjoyed sitting on the EAA Executive Committee for the past four years. I enjoy helping people. It has been a wonderful way for me to express my gratitude for the support and help from the Union... It is also vital that all of us try to be involved as much as possible to keep things moving forward...

I wish you all the best.
Lisa Cornish
